The minutes of the 140th meeting were ready by the Chairman and approved as read.

1. GENERAL.

The Chairman informed the conferees that EXOS Navy has made arrangements to fold and assemble the JANIS supplements. Navy personnel have been assigned and the work will be done in the Arlington warehouse.

Captain McCaskill reported that route strip maps for JANIS 75 have not, as yet, been received at JISPB.

2. EDITORIAL.

Cdr. Clinton reported that: (1) JANIS 150-Gazetteer & Map Appraisal will be ready this week. One 7-color map is still missing. (2) JANIS 153 chapters that have been received are being worked. (3) Supplements for JANIS 85-2, 84-1, 81-1 are all finished. (4) Contributors have submitted supplements for JANIS 73-1 and 76-1; the material for JANIS 73-1 should go out as a booklet.

3. PRODUCTION.

Lt. Van Rees suggested that all outstanding chapters of JANIS 150 should be completed as soon as possible in order to eliminate possible errors and to clear storage space. Some chapters of JANIS 153 have been edited.

4. PLANNING.

Lt. Quam reported that (1) the blue-line map and instructions for JANIS 72 have been disseminated; (2) the announcement memorandum for JANIS 70 is ready for distribution; (3) the bibliography for JANIS 72 (not including a G-2 list) is in process and will be distributed. The G-2 contribution will be published as a supplement to the bibliography.
